“Everybody is coming from the no more victims angle. We do this because we want to stop the harm. The statistics say it works.”

Volunteer (2017)

“As a business, we have a culture of transparency and support. We are part of the community so need to be part of the solution. re:shape has been running positive, informative and relevant training for us.”

Richer Sounds (2017)

We offer...

Interventions

We provide interventions for people who are assessed to present a risk of causing sexual harm:

- Circles of support and accountability
Medium to long-term, community-led.
- Paired mentoring
Short to medium-term, community-led.
- One-to-one
Goal based, short-term, future-focussed.

Multi-agency forums

Organisations with a shared agenda coming together to make the largest impact possible.

Professional training and consultancy

Tailored to your organisational need. We cover a range of topics including how to work safely with people convicted of sexual offences, creating a culture of transparency and understanding consent.

Awareness workshops

Delivered in your community. Let us come and talk to you about keeping yourself and your community safe.

Membership

Become a re:shape member and help us to support your organisation respond to the risk and impact of sexual misconduct in the workplace.

A community response

We are all connected to many communities: our families, neighbourhoods, hobbies, businesses, schools and religious groups. This is why we need your help. The only way to make an impact and change the future for our children is to start preventing sexual harm, right now! We can't do any of this without your support.

You can help...

Become a member – In addition to helping your organisation respond to the risk and impact of sexual misconduct in the workplace, every membership sold enables us to deliver more interventions, preventing further victims.

Volunteer – Our interventions could not operate without our magic ingredient, our volunteers. We offer comprehensive training and support. We also need volunteer trainers, fundraisers and administrators.

Donate – Money isn't everything, but we do need to pay our dedicated team, volunteer expenses and buy equipment. Each Circle costs around £10,000 and each community awareness session about £500. More donations means greater impact on your community. Please consider donating, doing a sponsored activity or supporting us in your will.

Buy our services – Interventions can be purchased for those with an identified need. We can deliver sessions to organisations on a variety of related subjects. As a bonus, all the money earned goes towards running more Circles and more awareness sessions!

Be proud to support us and join our journey – Work in partnership, display our logo, share your knowledge, tell people what we are doing and why, spread the word that you are proud to #PreventSexualHarm. Believe that the more we talk about abuse, the more impact we will have.
